

PRESS RELEASE

LDK Consultants

February 2007

LDK official supporter of the 2nd International Energy Summit

LDK Consultants Group of Companies participated as an official supporter at the 2nd International Energy Summit, organized by the Economist Conferences, under the auspices of the Greek Ministry of Development, at the Astir Palace Resort in Vouliagmeni, Athens, on February 27th and 28th.

During the conference under the title "Tilting the Global Balance", over 30 prominent speakers from 20 countries and international organizations presented their experience. In addition, more than 300 representatives from the Energy Industry both from Greece and abroad attended.

The President of LDK Group Mr Leonidas Damianidis addressed the conference as a key speaker among the specialists of the morning panel of February 28th. The panel was presided by the Greek Minister Mr Dimitris Sioufas and the general subject of the session was the Significance of Energy in Southeastern Europe.

LDK is a leading consulting group of companies based in Greece and operating in a multitude of developing and developed countries and markets, in Eastern Europe, the Middle East, Africa and Asia. It offers a full suite of services and integrated solutions in energy, buildings and infrastructure, environment, real estate and business consulting.